

February 13, 2022 PM
Paul Gotthardt
(#4 in series)

THIS IS THE GOSPEL

A Guide to Relationally-Centered Discipleship

Principles of Sowing and Reaping John 4:35-38; Mark 4:26-29

There are at least five truths we can learn from John 4:35-38:

- 1) Without the _____ of God, we are complacent and underestimate the spiritual _____ of those around us. (v. 35)
- 2) Jesus wants us to be _____ of the condition of the fields around us. (v. 35)
- 3) The fields refer to _____, and the context is _____ life. (v. 36)
- 4) _____ and _____ work together in the harvest of God. (vv. 36-37)
- 5) The ultimate purpose is not _____ but _____. (v. 38)

There are four primary truths that we can learn from Mark 4:26-29:

- 1) We're called to _____ seeds around us.
- 2) Scattering seeds is the _____ lifestyle of this individual.
- 3) There are stages of _____ in the maturation process of the seed.
- 4) The man demonstrates keen _____ and persistent _____ of the harvest.