

A Life Set Free

Philippians 4:4-9

Main Idea: Paul puts us in touch with the reality of a life with God that should lead us over time to experience exactly the joy and peace described in these verses even when our circumstances don't change for the better.

The problem with just liking the idea of rejoicing is that it doesn't translate into _____ rejoicing.

God's desire is to _____ us within the situations that make us anxious, not bypass them.

Paul assumes that we can be aware of _____ and in tune with the constant _____ of God himself in our lives.

No one would dare to celebrate the year of jubilee unless they had a deep trust in the _____ of God to provide for their needs.

This kind of awareness of the nearness and love of God actually sets us _____ free.

Anxiety will always be ours in abundance if we believe that what we possess is by my own _____, for me to use how I like, and for me alone.

We become _____ when we realize that everything is God's, we are simply _____ for a season, and all that we have is available for others.

Two More Instructions:

- 1) _____ on these things.... (v. 8)
- 2) Put these things into _____ (v. 9)

Paul said that Christians should not be constantly worrying.

Fill each blank with a word from the list that rhymes with the word beneath the blank.
