

All In: Leaving Average for Abundance
Worldly Affection ~ 1 John 2:15-17

What does this text teach us about worldly affection?

- Loving the world (and the things of the world)
_____ our devotion away from God's
_____ and God's will.
- When our devotion is diverted, we're increasingly
_____ to greater levels and avenues of _____.
- As worldly affection sets in, we become
_____ to true
_____ and pursue temporal pleasures
as eternal rewards.

All In: Leaving Average for Abundance
Worldly Affection ~ 1 John 2:15-17

What does this text teach us about worldly affection?

- Loving the world (and the things of the world)
_____ our devotion away from God's
_____ and God's will.
- When our devotion is diverted, we're increasingly
_____ to greater levels and
avenues of _____.
- As worldly affection sets in, we become
_____ to true
_____ and pursue temporal pleasures
as eternal rewards.

John continued his teaching with an important lesson.

Shade in the spaces that have a o. Then write the word on the blank below.

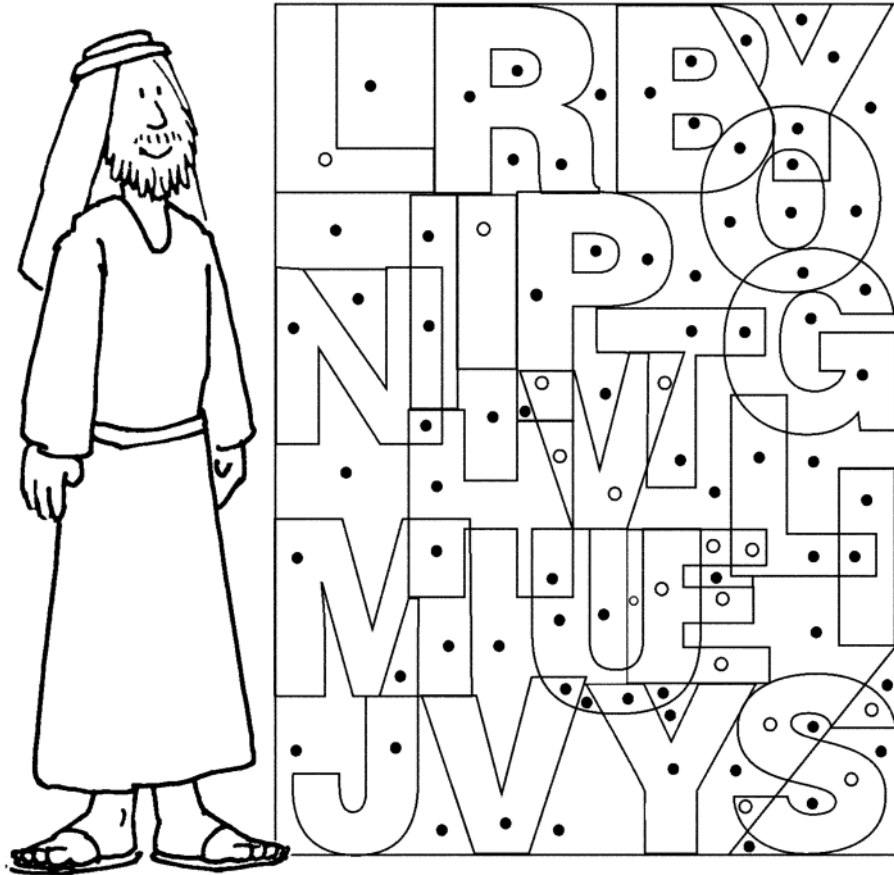

The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God _____ forever.

John continued his teaching with an important lesson.

Shade in the spaces that have a o. Then write the word on the blank below.

The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God _____ forever.