Undivided: Effective Prayer (Part 2)
James 5:13-18

All prayer is not equal prayer. All prayer is not equally effective.

Big Truth: When a child of God pursues the will of God (in faith, persistence, and righteousness), there is greater effectiveness in prayer.

Praying while suffering may accomplish one of two things.
It can provide relief by removing the afflictions (if it's God's will).
It can provide grace for enduring the affliction (while accomplishing God's will).

- Elders may be called to pray over the sick. (v.14-15)
- The _____ is to pray for each other through sin. (v.16)

_____ living hinders our prayers.

When confessing sin, there needs to be _____ honesty that sin was committed, but not a public _____ of every detail of the act. (Psalm 51)

- Believers should pray _____ when serving the Lord. (v.16b-18)

Elijah's prayers were NOT powerful and effective because He was a spiritual superhero; they were powerful and effective because he was a _____ man who prayed _____.
